As Black Friday sales draw closer, many shoppers will look forward to shopping online to avoid the crowd and lining up. Online shoppers need to take precautions so they do not fall victim to online scams.

Here are three (3) common scams that target consumers:

Phishing Emails:

Be cautious of unsolicited emails, especially ones with suspicious links. These emails may offer unbelievable deals but verify the sender's legitimacy.

Billing scams:

Scammers may send a message via phone or email stating combined experience, BCSI Investigations Inc. is the platinum standard for private investigations.

that a payment has not gone through. Be careful of any links they may send, as they plan to steal your information. It would be best for you to contact the retailer directly to verify the message and update your information.

Fake Websites:

Scammers can create fake sites that may look authentic. It is recommended to only visit well-known retailers' websites. Check for the HTTPS and lock icon on the URL.

Stay safe online this Black Friday, and remember to shop smart!
